Lembar Pembahasan Langkah per Langkah:

Pembahasan Soal #1 [Subject-Verb Agreement with Intervening Phrase] — Kunci Jawaban: (A)

The head noun of the subject is 'The collection' (singular). The prepositional phrase 'of rare antique books' does not alter the singular agreement: 'was auctioned'.

Pembahasan Soal #2 [Present Perfect Tense] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

Action starting in the past and continuing to the present signaled by 'since + time point' requires Present Perfect: 'has worked' or 'has been working'.

Pembahasan Soal #3 [Conditional Type 2 (Unreal Present)] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

Second Conditional (hypothetical present): If + Past Simple, would + V1. The past of have is 'had'.

Pembahasan Soal #4 [Conditional Type 3 (Unreal Past)] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

Third Conditional (hypothetical past regret): If + Past Perfect ('had been'), would have + V3 ('would not have happened').

Pembahasan Soal #5 [Passive Voice Across Tenses] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

Present Continuous passive requires: am/is/are + being + V3 ('are being inspected').

Pembahasan Soal #6 [Reduced Relative Clause (Active Participle)] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

Reduced relative clause of 'who is standing': the active participle '-ing' ('standing') functions as a concise adjective phrase modifying 'The engineer'.

Pembahasan Soal #7 [Reduced Relative Clause (Passive Participle)] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

Reduced relative clause of 'which was released': the passive past participle 'released' modifies 'The software update'.

Pembahasan Soal #8 [Relative Pronouns: 'Who' vs 'Whom'] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

The pronoun functions as the grammatical object of the verb 'interviewed' (you interviewed HIM/HER), thus requiring the objective relative pronoun 'whom'.

Pembahasan Soal #9 [Relative Pronoun of Possession 'Whose'] — Kunci Jawaban: (C)

Possessive relative pronoun denoting ownership ('the designer's portfolio') is 'whose'.

Pembahasan Soal #10 [Modal of Past Deduction 'Must Have + V3'] — Kunci Jawaban: (A)

'Must have + V3' conveys near-certain logical deduction regarding a completed past action based on clear physical evidence.

Pembahasan Soal #11 [Modal of Past Regret 'Should Have + V3'] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

'Should have + V3' expresses regret or unfulfilled moral/practical obligation in the past.

Pembahasan Soal #12 [Subject-Verb Agreement with 'Neither... Nor'] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

With correlatives like 'neither... nor...', the verb agrees with the closer subject. 'The software developers' is plural, so the plural verb 'were' is required.

Pembahasan Soal #13 [Quantifiers: 'Every' and 'Each'] — Kunci Jawaban: (A)

Subjects preceded by 'every' or 'each' take a singular verb regardless of compound conjunctions: 'was given'.

Pembahasan Soal #14 [Gerund vs Infinitive After 'Avoid'] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

The verb 'avoid' is strictly followed by a gerund (-ing form): 'avoid storing'.

Pembahasan Soal #15 [Subjunctive Mood in That-Clauses] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

Verbs of recommendation, demand, and insistence (recommend, demand, suggest, insist) trigger the subjunctive mood in the that-clause, using the base infinitive without -s: 'change'.

Pembahasan Soal #16 [Parallel Structure in Series] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

Parallel grammatical series of adjectives: secure (adj), responsive (adj), and 'maintainable' (adj).

Pembahasan Soal #17 [Preposition Collocation 'Capable of'] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

The adjective 'capable' is followed by the preposition 'of' + gerund: 'capable of handling'.

Pembahasan Soal #18 [Inversion After Negative Adverbial] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

When a sentence begins with a negative or restrictive adverbial (Rarely, Seldom, Scarcely, Never), auxiliary inversion is required: 'Rarely have we seen...'.

Pembahasan Soal #19 [Comparative Form] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

When comparing exactly two items ('of the two...'), formal grammatical convention uses the comparative degree with the definite article: 'the more suitable'.

Pembahasan Soal #20 [Used to vs Be Used to] — Kunci Jawaban: (B)

'Be used to' (meaning accustomed to) is followed by a gerund (-ing) or noun: 'is not used to working'.
